For boys/girls 9-14 years old

Students focus on imagination, creation, and theatre games as well as rehearsal for a final performance. Musical Theatre Kids is an entertaining way to learn presentation skills, work with other children, and present a final show. Students have the opportunity to develop their theatre and public presentation skills as they rehearse for a production which enables them to put theory into practice and to work as a team. Each week a different skill is introduced to the children.

All classes and final performance held at the Staten Island Zoo unless otherwise noted.

614 Broadway, Staten Island, NY 10310
